Thanks. Since Paula is still down in Durango it probably won't get approved until next week but at least it's in the queue. Libby

Hi Trish,

I left for Durango from my house at 1:00.

I returned to my house yesterday at 5:00.

I don't recall what I charged to my card. Gas? Some food. All of it would have been under the $75 cap for needing receipts. I can pay that in the bill when it comes through. There was one meal provided for lunch this past Monday so please deduct that.

Thanks, Libby

Libby,

So far I have hotel and POV for your voucher. Here are a few questions I need to complete your voucher.

- What time on August 6th did you leave for Durango and from where?
- What location did you return to on August 12th and at what time did you arrive?
- Other than your hotel, did you charge any meals to your Travel Card?

Thanks!

Hi Phillip,

I'm back in the office. Are you the person that would be doing my travel voucher? I've attached by hotel receipt. Aside from per diem to cover meals the only other cost is my POV mileage. I was instructed to drive my own car because there were no rental cars available in Durango and needed to leave immediately so there was no time for local coordination of a rental car here in Denver. Also there was not Government vehicle available for an indefinite period of time.

My total miles driven came to 780 miles based on my odometer.

Let me know if you have any questions. Thanks, Libby
